Summary of reasons for decision:

'B4f7b83a-6b03-45f3-a980-b4f70a6441c2' is a poor quality amateur video that depicts a man being hit in the head with a hammer. The video appears to have been filmed by an uninvolved witness and is observational in effect. The video is likely to greatly shock and disturb children and teenagers in particular. Footage like this is also likely to have an eventual effect of inuring younger viewers who are still developing emotionally and cognitively, to other real-life suffering more generally. While many adults are also likely to be disturbed by the footage they are expected to have the maturity and experience to appropriately contextualise potentially distressing material such as this. The Classification Office has considered the effects of the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990 on the application of all the classification criteria. A restriction on the publication's availability to adults places a limit on the right to freedom of expression, but this is a reasonable and justifiable limitation given the risk of injury to the public good.
